Important information about changes to your current employment and contraction documentation due to the introduction of new data protection laws

The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) will come into force in the UK on 25th May 2018 through a new Data Protection Act. We are committed to the principles of data security outlined in the GDPR and ensuring our compliance with our data protection obligations.

We have set out below some changes that are required because of the new laws, including a set of new policies that will come into effect on 25th May 2018.

Changes to your employment documentation

We have reviewed our current position in relation to GDPR and have identified new policies which are needed, or which must replace existing ones. This law, and the UK's own new Data Protection Act, will replace current data protection laws. Therefore, any references to the Data Protection Act 1998 in your current contractual documentation are, by way of this document, replaced with a reference to the General Data Protection Regulation and the Data Protection Act in force from time to time.

Our new policies are set out below and will come into effect from 25th May 2018:

- Data protection policy
- Communications policy
- Policy on your rights in relation to your data
- Data breach notification policy
- Subject access request policy

We have also implemented new privacy notices to be effective from 25th May 2018, which set out what personal data we use and how we use it:

- Privacy notice for employees
- Privacy notice for job applicants
